

NOTE:

If you would like to help with the cleaning of the church,
please see the signup sheet on the table in the vestibule.
Tasks are divided up so that no one person/couple will have to do all the cleaning for any given week.
Thank you in advance for your help.

“O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!” Psalm 107:1

It is all we can give him, and the least we can give; therefore, let us diligently render to him our thanksgiving. The psalmist is in earnest in the exhortation, hence the use of the interjection “O,” to intensify his words: let us be at all times thoroughly fervent in the praises of the Lord, both with our lips and with our lives, by thanksgiving and thanks living. JEHOVAH, for that is the name here used, is not to be worshipped with groans and cries, but with thanks, for he is good; and these thanks should be heartily rendered, for his is no common goodness: he is good by nature, and essence, and proven to be good in all the acts of his eternity. Compared with him there is none good, no, not one: but he is essentially, perpetually, superlatively, infinitely good. We are the perpetual partakers of his goodness, and therefore ought above all his creatures to magnify his name. Our praise should be increased by the fact that the divine goodness is not a transient thing, but in the attribute of mercy abides forever the same, for his mercy endures forever. The word endures has been properly supplied by the translators, but yet it somewhat restricts the sense, which will be better seen if we read it, “for his mercy forever.” That mercy had no beginning and shall never know an end. Our sin required that goodness should display itself to us in the form of mercy, and it has done so, and will do so evermore; let us not be slack in praising the goodness which thus adapts itself to our fallen nature.

—Charles Spurgeon, The Treasury of David

Upcoming Mission Projects:

CLEMSON/CAROLINA Challenge 2019

Clemson – Peanut Butter

Carolina – Jelly

Due: November 30th

2020 PRISON PACKETS For DJJ

PLACE ALL ITEMS IN A ONE GALLON ZIPLOC BAG

ALL PACKETS DUE BY NOVEMBER 19, 2020 (NO PENS For DJJ)

POPLAR POINTERS

Published by: Poplar Springs Baptist Church
Post Office Box 124
Ware Shoals, South Carolina 29692-0124
Tel: (864) 861-2196
Lucas Mann, Pastor
Tel: (864) 909-7564

Rooted in trust and hope in the Lord.
Branching out in ministry and service in our community.
– Jeremiah 17:7-8

VOLUME LXVII

NUMBER 3

November 12, 2020

What is the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering?

The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering® is an annual offering collected by believers around the world to support international missions. The offering was officially named in 1918 by Woman’s Missionary Union in honor of the missionary to China who urged churches to start it and give sacrificially.

This offering is unique from other mission offerings in that 100% of gifts provide for missionaries all over the world. It is a valuable part of Southern Baptists' 175-year history of reaching the nations with the gospel and vital to reaching the vision of a multitude from every language, people, tribe and nation knowing and worshipping our Lord Jesus Christ (Revelation 7:9).

Lottie Moon Christmas Offering
Week of Prayer for International Missions
November 29 - December 6
A Great Multitude + You