VOLUME LXVI

NUMBER 20

September 24, 2020

Stephen Charnock, a pastor and scholar of the 17th century, produced "the most elaborate [work] that has appeared on the subject" of the attributes of God. Using Charnock's work and study of the Scripture, our speakers will preach from God's remarkable Word for the blessing of Christ's Church.

The topic of focus for this year's conference is "Divine Providence." It is a timely topic from which the Church will gather many benefits. Consider Charnock's brief statement, "Therefore, first fix this in your minds, that God is righteous, wise, and good in everything. Good, therefore nothing can be hurtful to his people; righteous, therefore nothing unjust; wise, therefore nothing in vain." (110) We will be giving books away at each session, too!

 Rev. Sam Roper (Ora ARP)
 Pastor Lucas Mann (Poplar Springs BC)
